

The return of the Aspiring Athletes Classic Tour

We are, after a year's break, re-introducing the Aspiring Athletes Tour to the Cooks and Capital Classics in January.

What?

A chance to travel with other leading athletes to two major Meetings. Athletes will learn about Touring and recovery between Meetings. There will be training opportunities and lectures in sports science and related topics. There will also be an opportunity to meet leading senior athletes.

Who?

Any athlete who finishes in the top 6 may apply to join the Tour. We have up to 40 places available and if there are more applicants the top three Seniors have priority and can safely book Air flights.

When?

Monday 14 January until Saturday 19 January. Athletes may not require Friday evening after the evening Capital Classic, Cooks Classic in Whanganui on Tuesday 15 January and the Capital Classic in Wellington, Friday 18 January.

How much?

Travel $50 Aspiring Athlete Fee – Share of Management cost and T shirt $100, Accommodation and Meals $100/day, 5 Nights =$500, Contingency $50 (refunded if there are no cost overruns). Total Cost $700 (note reduction if not staying on the Friday evening).

How to apply?
